

El Toro High School Instrumental Music and Color Guard RBR COLOR GUARD Uniform Agreement

Your Color Guard costume is yours to keep assuming the costume fee has been paid in full. In the event that a student damages his/her costume before the end of the season, the student/student's family may be financially responsible for replacing the costume in a timely manner to ensure continued participation. However, the following rules apply.

1. Body tights and jazz shoes must be purchased separately by each family at the store of their choice. Coaches will provide additional information as to shoe color each season. This is a costume requirement in addition to the costume fee.
2. Arrive on show days wearing body tight and guard shirt / warm ups. Costume & jazz shoes will be put on at the show site.
3. Hair & makeup is an important component of the costume. Hair & makeup guidelines will be provided and must be followed. If your appearance is not performance ready by designated time, you will not be permitted to perform.
4. NO JEWELRY of any kind should be worn, unless it is specifically part of the costume.
5. Appropriate undergarments must be worn at all times while in costume.
6. No eating or drinking (except water) while in costume.
7. No PDA (public displays of affection) while in costume. You will be reminded by chaperones if this rule is violated.
8. Proper care and maintenance of costume is required by the student. Washing & care instructions will be provided
9. If the costume fee is not paid in full, the costume must be returned to the program at the end of the season. Failure to pay in full or return the costume will result in an invoice being sent.

By signing this page, I certify that I have read all of the policies, Costume Agreement and agree to abide by them. I understand that failure to conform to these policies may result in disciplinary action, lowered grades, payment to replace damaged uniforms or, in extreme circumstances, dismissal from the program. Please return the bottom half of this document by August 1 2022.

Student Signature

Student Name (print)

Parent Signature