Students interested in loaning a school instrument for the year or summer must agree to the following:

(Parent initials)

The student and parent/guardian agree to pay for any damage due to neglect or improper use of the instrument.

The student and his/her parent(s) or guardian(s) will be responsible for all equipment described herein which shall include any such damages as may be sustained through neglect or misuse other than normal wear which will occur with good care and use. I further agree that I will never allow any person, other than myself, to handle or use this equipment without the consent of the instrumental teacher. I agree to return the above instrument or equipment immediately upon the request of the instrumental teacher, principal or any other school or district administrator.

Students must have the instrument serviced by Bertrand's Horn Improvement prior to return of instrument. At the end of the year, Bertrand's will come to El Toro to estimate repair costs. The printed estimate will be sent home with student and we request a check is made out to ETHS IMPB for amount of estimate. Bertrand's will then pick up instruments for repair and return to the school. In the event the instrument does not need repairs, a Bertrand's slip must accompany the return of the instrument to verify the instrument is in good condition.
